PRE-EXISTING MEDICAL CONDITIONS AND RELATED CONDITIONS

The Global Health plans do not cover the treatment of pre-existing medical conditions and related conditions. A pre-existing medical condition means any disease, illness or injury for which you have received medication, advice or treatment, or for which you have experienced symptoms, whether the condition has been diagnosed or not, at any time before the date on which your Global Health plan starts.

After two years of continuous cover, some pre-existing medical conditions will become eligible for benefit, subject to the terms and conditions of your plan, provided you have not consulted any doctor or medical practitioner for medical treatment or advice (including check-ups), or taken medication, (including injections), or been advised to follow a special diet, or suffered symptoms for that medical condition, or for any related condition, for a continuous period of two years.

Examples of pre-existing conditions that will never be covered include diabetes, hypertension (raised blood pressure), hyperlipidaemia (raised cholesterol levels), ischemic heart disease, cancer, thyroid disease, and auto-immune disorders. If you have suffered from any of these conditions, or any other condition for which it is generally accepted medical advice that it be monitored in any way, then that condition – and any related conditions – will never be covered. Examples of related conditions are raised cholesterol levels and heart disease and stroke. If you have suffered from high cholesterol before your date of entry to the plan you will never be covered for cardiac problems or strokes.

If you have suffered from any type of serious or chronic medical condition we strongly recommend that you apply for an underwritten Global Health plan. You can do this by completing an underwritten application form available from our web-site or from William Russell Limited. Our underwritten application form will ask you specific questions about your medical history and your answers will enable us to advise you before you join of any exclusions that will apply permanently to your cover.
